

I urge you to leave the Consumer Protection Act intact in the state of New Jersey, as it relates to telemarketers. It is an invasion of family privacy when telemarketers call your home during the dinner hour or at 9:00 AM on a Sunday morning, as has happened several times to me. The only thing I ask is for you to picture what that would be like at your house if it occurred every day and every week. Does the word frustrating come to mind?
